

UNEARTH A STORY™

MAY 26–JULY 31, 2026

- ↓ Mark one box for every 20 minutes of reading or each activity completed.
- ↓ Record your progress in Beanstack. lexcolibrary.beanstack.org
- ↓ Mark all 36 boxes to earn your summer reading prize and enter to win a grand prize.
- ↓ Pick up your prize and enter the grand prize drawing between June 15 and July 31.

ACTIVITIES

- 1 Get a library card
- 2 Visit a local site with historical roots
- 3 Write down a family story
- 4 Bake or cook a recipe from another era
- 5 Make a fossil-themed bookmark
- 6 Attend a library program
- 7 Share a favorite fact with someone
- 8 Explore the library's digital archives
- 9 Plant something an herbivore would eat
- 10 Watch a documentary
- 11 Declutter a space
- 12 Follow @lexcolibrary on social media

let's learn about triceratops

FUN FACT
Some triceratops may have had as many as 800 teeth.

The triceratops had a large skull relative to its body size.

Triceratops were herbivores — they ate low-growing plants like ferns and shrubs.

START

Full Name _____

Email _____

Zip Code _____ Phone # _____

Username _____

Password _____

Branch

- Lexington Main
- Batesburg-Leesville
- Cayce-West Columbia
- Chapin
- Gaston
- Gilbert-Summit
- Irmo
- Pelion
- South Congaree-Pine Ridge
- Swansea
- Mobile Library

School

if applicable

Age Group (years)

- 0-5
- 6-11
- 12-17
- 18+

